Dedication

In appreciation of the many hours he has devoted to the athletic program of WHS, the 1965 WARRIOR staff dedicates this book to DANIEL A. NORDLUND.

The prestige Warrenton has acquired in the past five years can be attributed largely to Mr. Nordlund's efforts in building a bigger and better athletic program for the school.

In Memoriam

Mr. Stamps was a true gentleman, whose personal ideals of integrity, honesty, and sincerity were passed along in the process of teaching to many of his pupils. This will be his memorial in the hearts of W. H. S. students whom he sought to serve in every way he could.

The Athletic Boosters promoted interest in WHS and the athletic program by their enthusiasm and support. No matter where the game was the boosters were there in their "purple hats". The boosters are responsible for the lighting of the football field which was dedicated during halftime of the first home football game.

Thank You

The Warrenton Garden Club worked hard to beautify the grounds around WHS this last year. Plants were donated by citizens of the town and the Garden Club planted them according to the plans made by the architect and landscaping designer.

Office Staff

Mrs. Coyle, our secretary, is perhaps the unsung hero of WHS. For many patient hours of service we are indeed thankful and indebted.

Our friendly office staff, under the patient direction of Mrs. Coyle, renders many a service to office, teachers, and students alike. The girls take absentees, type letters, and lend a helping hand to all who request. Thank you, girls!

Maintenance

LeRoy Dunn, faithful servant of WHS is always ready with a helping hand and a chuckle or two.

Cliff Hayes is a familiar figure around the school. His efforts are appreciated by all.

Within these hallowed halls are many jobs for the custodians ranging from cleaning blackboards to building staircases.

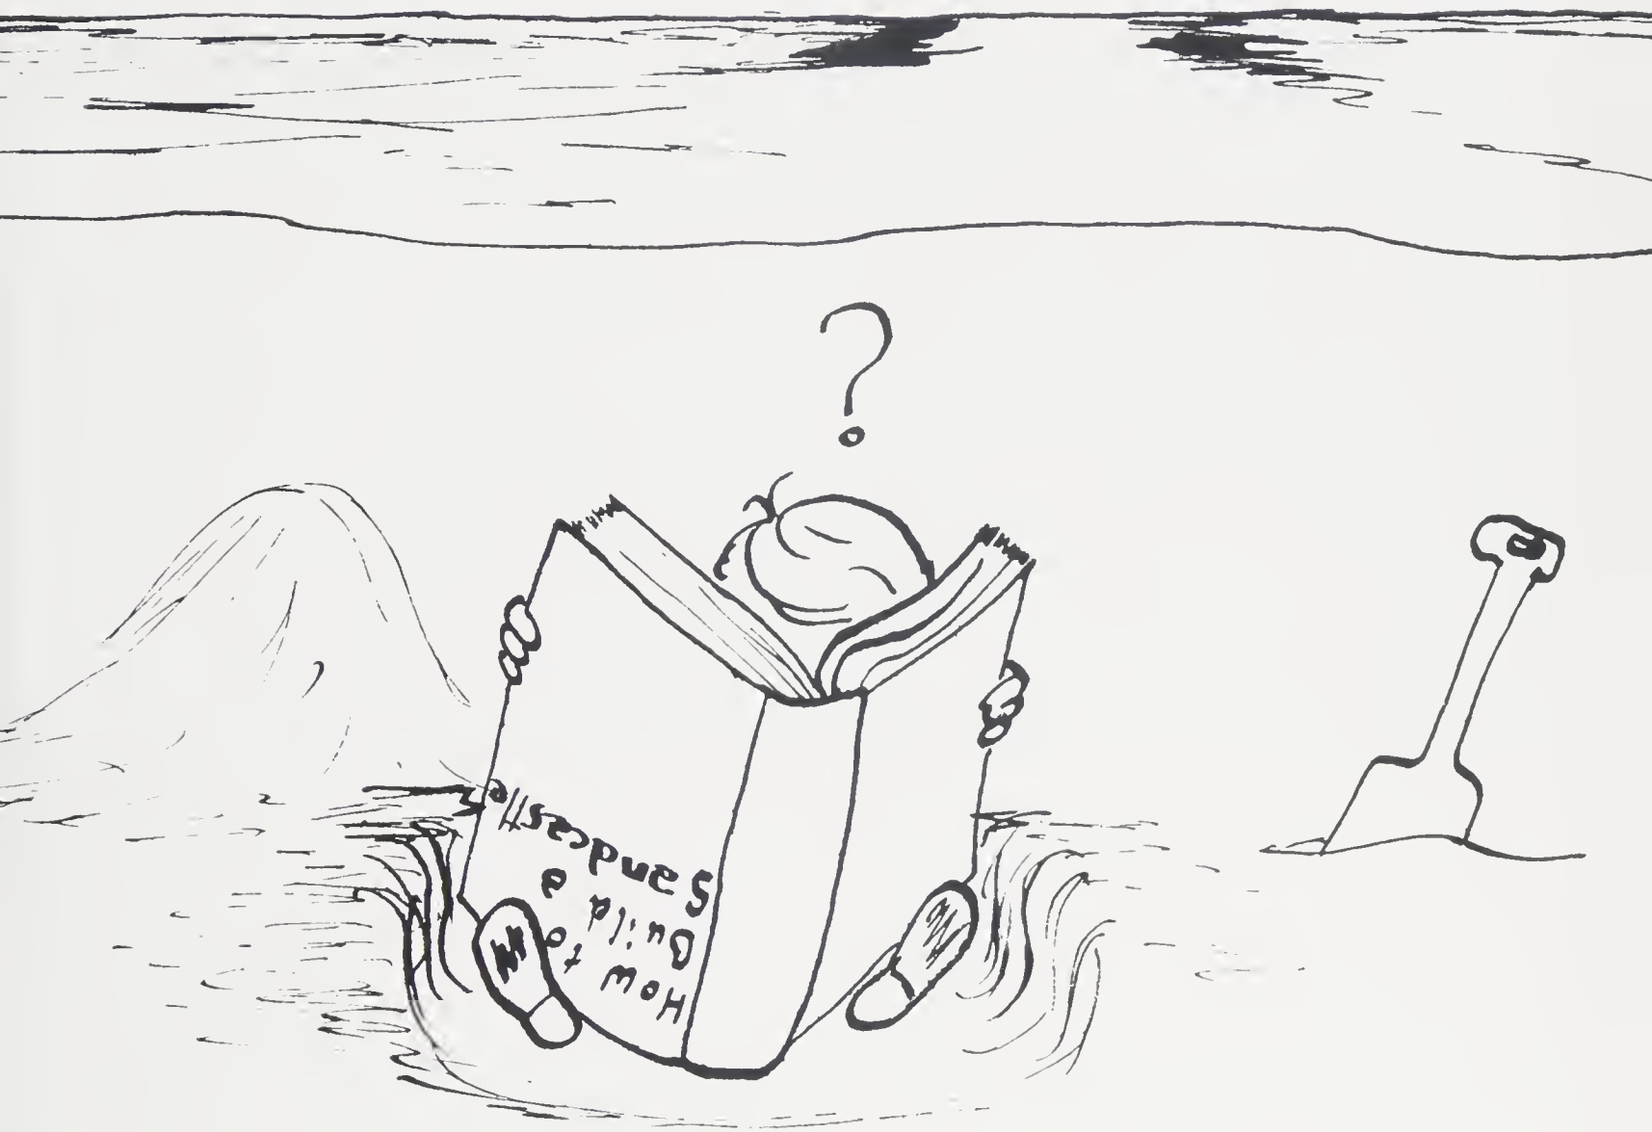
ACADEMICS



Sciences

Alice Hitchman supervises a tedious Physics II experiment.

An interesting view of an Advanced Biology Class.

Aproned Chemistry I students put their knowledge to use in performing a successful experiment.

First period wakes these Trig students with a shower of sines and cosines.

Math

Geometry, the Sophomores' favorite class.

Concentrating Algebra II students learn to work with logs.

Language Arts

Oui, le francaise est funnie! Advanced French students learn French humor.

World Events

No, Freshmen... Warrenton is not the capital of Oregon.

Junior students ponder tough American History exam.

Students of World History learn location of Great Britain.

Puzzled Seniors question the merits of marriage in Social Econ. class.

Business Courses

Typing I students learn the basic skills necessary for business careers.

"A=L+P"
Assets equal liabilities plus proprietorship. Bookkeeping students learn fundamental budgeting equation.

Industrious Shorthand II students prepare for secretarial work.

Home Ec

Sandy Rogers cracks an egg.

And Sharon Hutchins sews a seam.

Art

These joyous art students are... cutting out paper dolls?

Industrial Arts

The new program started this year in Industrial Arts is the hoped-for beginning of an overall expanded program that will lead to a better understanding of industry and the industrial processes. Areas covered this year are woodworking, power mechanics, electricity, and basic metals.

Shop class listens intently to explanation by Mr. Laird.

Mechanical Drawing teaches patience and precision.

Mr. Capelli lends a helping hand to busy student.

Library

The library provides a relatively calm atmosphere for study hours.

Busy librarians gather no dust.

Physical Education --- Builds

Physical fitness is stressed in Boys' P. E. classes.

Rough and ready P. E. boys gain physical stamina through vigorous activity.

Stronger Students

Competition is keen in girls' daily P. E. classes.

Volleyball requires attentive enthusiasm.

Smoke Signal and Revolt!

WHS's amazing high-quality literary magazine, REVOLT!, was edited and produced by Dick Engeman. It was published six times during the year, and included original stories and poems, an expose of the Ku Klux Klan, and a gallant stand for Barry Goldwater for President.

The WHS SMOKE SIGNAL, edited by Julieann Hensel, spewed forth exciting news to the students every two, three, or four weeks, depending on the energy of the Juniors in Journalism I. They didn't have much.

Each club and class in the school has a representative in student council. Members are: Jon May, FTA; Harold Kunkler, W. Club; Linda Manke, Seniors; Julieann Hensel, Honor Society; Dot Hollaway, Pep Club; Peggy Lane, Rally; Sue Thomas, GAA; Kathy Alcorn, Sophomores; Ron Wells, Freshmen. Missing are Ben Rupp and Roberta Edwards, Juniors.

To be eligible for National Honor Society, students must have above 3 point GPAs and be in good standing in the school. Mrs. Baldwin is advisor. Front Row: Julieann Hensel, Alice Hitchman, Barbara May, Dorothy Hollaway, Diane Wells, Mary Ann D'Agostino, Linda Manke, Linda Severson, Sharon Holstein, Tanya Roundy, Jeannie Linville. Back Row: Marilyn Swindler, Kaye Melendy, Dick Engeman, Forrest Estes, John May, Jon May, Cindy Camp, and Sue Thomas.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America with Mrs. May as their advisor worked hard during the year with various money-making projects in order to send two delegates to the FTA Conference at Monmouth during the summer. Dequita Kunkler and Terry Enke were chosen as WHS's delegates.

Jon May was president. Serving with him were: Dequita Kunkler, Secretary and Sandy Miller, Vice-President.

GAA

Officers of GAA include: Georgia Volker, Business Manager; Shelly D'Agostino, Secretary; Diane Mickle, Vice President; Kaye Melendy, Treasurer; Sue Thomas, President; Kathy Larsh, Sports Head; and Cindy Volker, Sgt. at Arms.

President
Tanya Roundy

Girls' League

The Girls' League completed a successful year under the direction of Tanya Roundy, President. The members worked hard on various projects such as the cook book sales, the annual Cotton Ball, and the Mother Daughter Tea, all of which were a success. The Girls' League is a service organization formed of all girls wishing to participate.

-Pep Club-

This year's Pep Club was a select, close-knit group, clad in bright purple jumpers (except Forrest, who wore bright purple slacks). Their organized enthusiasm added greatly to the excitement at basketball games.

Top to Bottom: Linda Hagnas, Nellie Roberts, Karen Thwing, Forrest Estes, Carol Curnow, Judy Baldwin, Debby Carper, Kathy Alcorn, Pennee Larsh, Susan Manary, Joy Wheatley, Dorothy Hollaway, advisor Miss Collette, Alice Hitchman, Holly Doughty.

Rally

Promoting school spirit and leading the student body in yells this year were the energetic Varsity Squad: Queen Peggy, Becky Rubens, Tanya Roundy, Sandy Miller.

Following the Junior Varsity team this year were the enthusiastic JV Squad: Julie Wolfe, Alternate Helen Cowles, Jill Hartill, Barbara Manke, Lavena Massey.

Pep Band

The eighteen-member Pep Band, under the direction of James Hansen, livened up all home games and many of the away contests. Performing with the band were the peppy Warriorettes. Composing this rhythm group are Linda Severson, Mary Ann D'Agostino, Linda Werschkul, Cindy Camp, Shirley Lanier, Sherry Brim, and Shelly D'Agostino.

Warrenton High School's award-winning band is shown here playing for the Thanksgiving assembly. The 46-piece band received straight "superior" ratings at the 1965 district Music Festival at Clatskanie, and has been acclaimed one of the finest bands in the state. It performed for the public in a "Pops" concert in December, a late Winter concert in April, and a Spring concert in May. It also performed in a concert at Clatskanie, and played for the 1965 graduation ceremonies at WHS.

Band

Band Seniors

These seven Seniors were the backbone of the Warrenton High School band in 1964-1965.

At the final concert of the year, Dick Engeman and Linda Manke were both presented with the John Phillip Sousa Award for their contributions to the band.

Warrior '65

The WARRIOR staff, led by co-editors Dick Engeman and Julieann Hensel, worked long and hard against overwhelming odds to produce the 1965 annual. Photographers Tom Hunt and Lowell Smotherman added spice and excitement to the staff's efforts. The staff and photographers were advised by Mr. Laird, with Mrs. Walt and Mrs. Williams called in!

Co-Editor Julieann discusses layout with MaryAnn while Alice and Linda work on copy.

MISS SCHOLARSHIP

Alice Hitchman

Susan Amundsen, Astoria, a IFYE student to the Philippines, presented a program to the student body relating to her year's stay in the islands and experiences encountered while there.

The Mr. Ugly Contest, sponsored by the Annual Staff, was won by the Senior candidate, Jack Watson. A candidate was selected from each class, and the Student Body voted for the boy they wished by placing coins in jars with the candidates pictures on them. Jack's victory was announced during half-time at the Vernonia game, and he was crowned at the after-game dance.

March

Chosen as March Girl-of-the-Month was LINDA GARCIA, Miss Truth.

For the second year in a row, WHS earned the right to compete in the District playoffs. There was excitement in the air all through March. Here the boys pack their bags before taking off.

April

LINDA MANKE
Miss Personality

In April, the halls were brightened by dozens of posters begging votes for their candidates. Competition was heavy for most offices, and every available space was used to advertise. Other tricks used by candidates were bribery by candy and gum, and threats of physical violence.

Becky Rubens and Kay Johnson were selected by the American Legion to attend Oregon Girls' State at Salem's Willamette University in June. Alternates chosen were Cindy Camp and Michele D'Agostino.

This year coaches Dan Nordlund and Joe Clark led the Warriors to their most successful Cowapa League record in many years. The Warriors started with a victory over Neah-kah-nie and went on to rack up four more wins and one tie while dropping only two. This resulted in a crucial second-place tie with North Catholic. However, the Warriors lost the tie-breaking game and dropped to fourth place with a 5-3-1 record.

JV's

The Warrenton Junior Varsity got off to a slow start when they lost their season opener against the Star of the Sea Stars. The season then picked up strong when they won their next three games against Seaside's Frosh, Ranier's Junior Varsity, and Knappa's J. V. 's. Unfortunately, they lost their final game against the Seaside Junior Varsity. They closed the season with a 3-2-0 record.

Basketball

From December through March the word at WHS is basketball. Ten guys are picked for the team. For the next three months, their lives will be centered around the game, occupying their every word and thought. Day after day, these men work and strain every muscle getting in shape for the season ahead. Then it comes--the first tip of the first game, and the season is under way. For the next three months, they will put everything they have into making this one a winning season, hoping that what they have to give is enough to bring laurels and congratulations to their town and school.

This year proved to be an extremely successful one as the Warriors rolled up 6 wins against only 2 losses. This record, plus an all-important win at the tie-breaking play-off in Seaside, took our team to the Cowapa League tourney in the number one spot for the second straight year.

The end of the regular season found Seaside and Warrenton tied in first spot, and a long remembered battle was waged to determine who was number one between the two teams.

JV's & Frosh

The 1964-65 season was the first to see Warrenton with both a Junior Varsity and Freshman squads. The year turned out rather disappointing for the JV's while the frosh initiated their squad with a successful year and ended up with a winning record. Although the rewards are not great after putting out a long season of hard work, necessary experience is gained for the upcoming seasons of varsity ball.

Duane Lindquist spent his first year in the coaching capacity guiding both the JV and freshman teams.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Queen Mary Ann and King Jack

"Pink Panther"

Amid a setting of pink stripes and panthers, the couples of WHS swirled at the 1965 Junior-Senior Prom. The couples entered the dance over moss-covered bridge which was surrounded by a pond. Mr. Pink Panther was there to greet them. The music of the Bill Sutton Quintet provided the entertainment for the evening. The theme Pink Panther let them into coronation at which time the Queen was presented the Pink Panther; each of the princesses was presented an aluminum panther. Many precious memories were gained that night.

"Alice in Wonderland" was the theme for the annual Mother-Daughter Tea held in the activity room. This year's tea was the biggest ever with over 300 guests.

"Alice in Wonderland"

Linda Garcia was announced as being chosen Girl-of-the-Year by Mrs. Walt, Girls' League Advisor, during the tea.

Senior Assembly

Senior class president Joe Smith presents gifts of the class to advisor Mr. Ballman. Co-advisor Mrs. Trullinger stands by with her package. Mr. Ballman received a personalized brief case, Mrs. Trullinger an ornate silver platter. Custodians Mr. Dunn, Mr. Hayes also received small gifts in appreciation for their help to the class.

Mr. Ballman announces awards to students at the Senior Assembly, June 4.
